About Timico

Timico is a privately-owned, information and communications technology provider, supplying multi-site organisations with the network connectivity, cloud, unified communication, managed IT and mobile solutions they need to operate effectively in today's highly competitive market place.

Founded in 2004, our impressive growth has come about through both organic and acquisitive means. Group annualised turnover is currently circa £60m. We service the UK and international needs of over 15,000 clients from our head office in Newark, Nottinghamshire and five other offices nationwide.
