Info service

Gigaset.net is a voluntary service from Gigaset Communication GmbH without any guarantee or liability for the availability of the network and the service.

The info service, showing the weather, horoscope and RSS feeds on a DECT handset is part of the Gigaset.net service.

We would like to inform you that the free info service is not continued and therefore the weather, horoscope and RSS feeds can't be displayed on your handset anymore. You will see instead the Clock.

It is always possible to activate your own info server, see: FAQ RAP \(XHTML\)
